

I, JOHN GRENVILLE ST. GEORGE SYMS Q.C. of Willinghurst

Shamley Green in the County of Surrey do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:-

1. I am the beneficial owner of Field O.S. 1400 Farley Green in the County of Surrey which forms part of the Willinghurst Estate. I refer to the plan which I deposited with the Clerk to the Surrey County Council enclosed in a letter dated the 21st February 1980.

2. Running along the western boundary of the aforesaid field I admit to the existence of Footpath 219. I aver that there are no other public rights of way of any sort whatsoever over any part of the aforesaid field.

AND I MAKE THIS SOLEMN DECLARATION conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1835

DECLARED at Guildford
all County of Surrey
this 4th day of March 1980

Before me,

A Commissioner for Oaths.

The Clerk to the Surrey County Council,
County Hall,
Kingston,
Surrey.

Dear Sir O.S. No: 1400
Proof of Intention Not To Dedicate Land for Public Path
Sec 34 (6) Highways Act 1959

I enclose herewith a plan of field O.S. No: 1400, Farley Green, which forms part of the Willinghurst Estate.

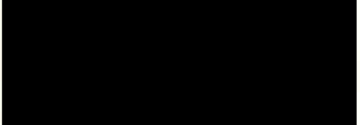

I am the beneficial owner of the above field.

Running along the western boundary of the aforesaid field I admit to the existence of Footpath 219. I aver that there are no other rights of way of any sort whatsoever over any part of the aforesaid field.

I am depositing this plan, and making this statement in pursuance of Section 34 (6) of the Highways Act, 1959. I would be grateful if you would acknowledge receipt of this letter.

Reference is made in the aforesaid section of the Highways Act to the Owner making his statutory declaration within six years from the date of the deposit (i.e. this date). I understand that the making of the statutory declaration is obligatory. Can you please inform me whether it can be done immediately, and if once a statutory declaration has been made and lodged that is sufficient for all time.

Yours faithfully;

J. G. St. G. Syms Q.C.

c.c. The Clerk to the Albury District Council, Council Offices,
Guildford.
